
NOVOCURE LIMITED
GLOBAL SUPPLIER STANDARD GOVERNANCE

Novocure is committed to sourcing its materials and services in a manner that benefits people and the environment. Novocure expects its suppliers to support and respect the protection of human rights and ensure they are not complicit in human rights abuses. Novocure expects its suppliers to follow universally accepted employment practices and to prioritize health and safety.

Suppliers are expected to comply with all applicable labor laws, including those related to wages, overtime, vacations, absences, disability, maximum working hours and legal right to work. Suppliers are also expected to comply with all reporting obligations regarding the abolition of child labor. Suppliers must not use any bonded or forced labor, slavery, involuntary prison labor or human trafficking.